most use to us, are faulty which make the pelachon of him as ~~one of the~~ a Peak and on this occation, one eminently fit to be made. and the Chicasaws are equally fortunate in having the pursuit of the presence of such Rafael; a man of learning, of high Judicial station, a fine orator, and above all one who understands this question most thoroughly & from beginning to end.

Now, this being your view as well as mine, please write me a brief letter of congratulation that we have secured such an eminent speaker for our meeting; a letter that will do to introduce in a Chicago paper. This will be a natural & easy way of advertising the meeting & the speaker, and will give to the public the support of your name, which will be a decided help. It is a difficult thing to get up a successful public meeting. It is quite essential to success that the meeting should be talked of in advance & the public be put on the qui vive as to the matter of speakers.

My dear Garrison

We have been anxiously looking for a Freedmans Meeting at Chicago on the 10th prox. and, as you may know, have secured for speakers on the occasion George Thompson and Judge Russell. Thompson's eloquence, his long and disinterested devotion to the cause of Universal Freedom the world over, and added to these considerations - the valuable services he rendered to this country on his own shores, when such services were of the
